

Kenneth H Sullivan

YORK HARBOR, Maine — Kenneth Hayes Sullivan, 50, of Starboard Lane, died Saturday, Nov. 24, 2001, at York Hospital from injuries received in an automobile accident.

He was born in Boston, Mass., on Nov. 18, 1951, a son of Edward D. and Helen (Hynes) Sullivan. He graduated from Pittsfield High School in 1969 with high honors. He received his bachelor's degree in 1973 and a Master of Science degree in management engineering in 1974 from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute in Troy, N.Y. He was a Baker Scholar and received a Master of Business Administration from Harvard Business School in 1976.

He began his career as a financial investor as a securities trader with E.F. Hutton in New York City, where he worked until 1984. He then became a senior vice president banker for Drexel-Burnham-Lambert Co. in New York City. He also worked as an investment banker for Republic National Bank. In 1990 he started his own company, Mercadian Capital Corp., and was the CEO of the Pinicipia Corporation, with offices in Jersey City, N.J., and London.

In 1998, he and his family moved to York Harbor to fulfill a lifelong dream of building a golf course. He was a partner in The Ledges Golf Course in York and the recently opened Fox Ridge Golf Club in Auburn, Maine. He continued to pursue his interests as a securities investor.

He was a communicant of St. Christopher Church in York. While in high school he was on the wrestling team and was an all-state member and captain of the high school golf team. He was president of the Sigma Chi fraternity while at Rensselaer. He was on the board of trustees at the Wardlaw Hardridge School, where his children had gone, and was very active in the sports program. He enjoyed working with children and was an assistant coach for many different sports in Westfield, N.J., where he had resided for 20 years. He was an assistant for the wrestling team at York High School. He loved all outdoor activities and ran in many marathons and Iron Man competitions. He enjoyed playing golf whenever possible.

His mother predeceased him.

Survivors include his wife, whom he married on Aug. 31, 1974, Sharon E. (Tyska) Sullivan of York Harbor; three sons: Nolan E. Sullivan, Nicholas T. Sullivan and Kyle H. Sullivan, all of York Harbor; his father, Edward D. Sullivan of Hanover, N.H.; brothers Gregory Sullivan of Salem, N.H., and Theodore Sullivan of Simi Valley, Calif.; sisters Janet Sullivan of Orleans, Mass., and Rebecca Fawcett of Hanover, N.H.; and several nieces, nephews and cousins.
